

THE MANDURAH LIONS CLUB

BULLETIN

JANUARY 2018

We are all in this together

Another year is upon us. A Happy New Year to all the Mandurah Lions Club members and their families.

As a team we work together as one and the results just fall our way.

The exciting, festive season is nearly over. Only the Australia Day breakfast to go on the January 26, 2018. Look out for this and be involved.

Ian Kelly has sent you all the upcoming events so look at them and if you are available some of these events are very worthwhile.

As your president these are some of the ANSWERS to Lions Questions.

• New initiatives/Activities improves us as a club. Be prepared to be involved.

• Enjoy what you are doing.

• Friendship, positive support and Self-Esteem.

• Be happy assisting the community as a volunteer.

These four points are the answers to questions fired at me from time to time.

These are the most common answers I give and if we all give and use these answers our club will continue to be healthy and strong.

Paul Ripley and Wendy Ripley have again excelled during December with their organisation and skill with the Santa Activity. There is little outlay for a great return to Lions.

Thanks to all the helpers who assisted Paul and Wendy and Peter Lamb during this fun time. We continue to need more Santa's for this year so be prepared and have a go because it is fun and a great night out with families.

The three Vice Presidents are always busy leading the troops, so gather behind them in all activities and assist them please.

They are continually putting forward ideas and ways to improve our club and we need to listen to them and be proactive as well.

All members need to think clearly now and be prepared to pencil your name in for the Board positions of 2018/2019.

Every person of the club needs to fulfil a board position within the Mandurah Lions Club to improve their knowledge, self esteem and how Lions works.

All positions are available so plan ahead and have a go.

Enjoy the nice weather with your family and friends and have fun.

*Regards,
Rob Kelly,
President 2017/2018*

HOW QUICK IS THIS

Graham George Bateman makes a call to members for assistants to help with a job that just popped up.

Within a flash the problem is fixed, Des McLean who must live in his computer was on the job, "I can handle this job if no one else can" Des explains.

The job was to collect a full bale of cans from Harald Lorek.

"You would need to contact him first and take an empty wool bale to exchange." GGB barked.

"I would collect them but I am currently dog and cat minding at my daughter's house in Mount Hawthorn. I will not be home until next Wednesday evening.

"If someone can do this can they advise other members so that we don't have un-necessary duplication.

"Many thanks." GGB closed.

Hi Graham I will do that job this afternoon if no one else replies. Regards, and Happy New Year to all. Des

Now that's Lions in action.

Santa projects raise $3,750

No one does it better! How times have you heard that phrase?

Well I know somebody who has. Don't look past the Ripleys. How the heck the two-some managed to throw together the Santa project with the success that only they could arrange is completely beyond me.

Just look at the work that Wendy put into making up Santa Suits to fill all shapes and size bodies. And Paul throwing together his teams of Santas trained and ready for action at the designated places.

I know I was one of them. How about handing out 200 books to eager readers then do a couple of laps of the oval dressed in Red and White. And that brings me to another yarn, there I am sitting in Gods chair pretending to smile at the little tackers who only want to pull your beard. "And who do you barrack for (AFL) Eagles, Dockers? No the Swans a voice from the wilderness bellowed out "Go the Swanees" After making aquaintnce two very happy people were about to become members of the Swans. How did you do it I was asked. Santa is dressed in Red and White isn't he?

Santa project

Paul Ripley started the Santa project by contacting local Mandurah Family Resort, Day Care Centres and SAAC and offering Santa Hire for December.

Paul was contacted by Hogs Breath, Mandurah Discount Drug Store, Wanslea and others to provide hire service.

Forty appointments were organised for December. 21 of these were for Hogs Breath.

The project was handed over to Peter Lamb to organise Santas to visit the establishments.

Eight members from the club acted as Santa approximately five times each raising a sum of just over $2500.

Paul offers his thanks to Peter Lamb, Neil Saunders, John Osborne, Peter Drown, Clive Cartledge, Graham Madigan and Robert Kelly. Well done without your support the job is doomed.

Christmas Eve Deliveries.

Eleven Santas with their elves drove around Mandurah, Pinjarra and as far south as Dawesville delivering close to 300 presents.

Many thanks to the Mandurah Lions members who came along and helped out and also to Bob Halford's son-in-law (Matt) and also to Ian Derrick from Falcon Lions who strengthened the Santa numbers.

There wasn't any advertising for this project it was all word of mouth. This project raised close to $1250

OK Paul $3,750 was an excellent effort.

12 October 2017

Dear Mr Kelly,

ASSOCIATIONS INCORPORATION ACT 2015
LIONS CLUB OF MANDURAH (the Association)

I refer to the Notice of committee's resolution to change rules received by this office on 13 September 2017.

The changes have been lodged effective 12 October 2017 and placed on our records on the basis that the Association's executive or committee have declared that the amended rules were passed by their resolution and do no more than give effect to a requirement, restriction or prohibition imposed under the Associations Incorporation Act 2015 (the Act). Lodgement should not be taken as validation that the rules conform to the requirements of the Act.

Please ensure that these changes are sent to members along with notice of the next annual general meeting.

It is important to be aware that if the rules do not meet the Scheduled requirements or are inconsistent with the Act, those provisions will be deemed invalid. The parts of the Prescribed Model Rules that deals with those matters will continue to apply as the Association's rules from 1 July 2019.

As you will appreciate the process of applying the Prescribed Model Rule(s) has the potential to be confusing for members. It may also lead members to make decisions based on incorrect requirements. In light of this, the Association is strongly encouraged to conduct its own examination of its rules to ensure they address the mandatory requirements set out in the Act.

The Department of Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety – Consumer Protection Division (Consumer Protection) has developed the Associations Transition Pack 3 which includes a checklist of requirements which can be used as a guide to assist the Association to comply with its obligations under the Act. This Associations Transition Pack 3 is available online at <http://www.commerce.wa.gov.au/publications/associations-transition-pack-3>

Associations Information Line: 1300 30 40 74 or (08) 6552 9300
Email: associations@dmirs.wa.gov.au | Internet: www.dmirns.wa.gov.au/consumer-protection

If you find that the rules are non-compliant you must take steps to amend the rules at the next available opportunity. Further information about how to amend the rules of the Association can be found in the Department's Inc – A Guide for Incorporated Associations available online from www.commerce.wa.gov.au/associationsguide/.

Consumer Protection undertakes random audit reviews of revised rules with regard to the matters set out in Schedule 1 but this is not conducted for every lodgement. The Association will be contacted should any problems be identified in the event that a review is undertaken.

It is also opportune to remind the Association that under the Act there is now the requirement to submit an Information Statement (the Statement) to Consumer Protection. The Statement is required to be lodged no later than six months after the end of the association's end of financial year. The Statement can be submitted either by using AssociationsOnline (www.commerce.wa.gov.au/associationsonline) or by obtaining and completing the form from the fees, forms and online transactions page of our website (www.commerce.wa.gov.au/associations).

Should you require any further information in relation to this matter please contact Associations Registration staff on 1300 30 40 74 or by email to associations@dmirs.wa.gov.au
